Footnotes:

^{1/} A recipient committee may be required to file a supplemental preelection statement (Form 495) if contributions totaling $10,000 or more are made in connection with an election held in 2005. The statement is due 12 days before the election, covering the period ending 17 days before the election.

A recipient, major donor, or independent expenditure committee that makes independent expenditures totaling $1,000 or more to support or oppose a single candidate or ballot measure must file the supplemental independent expenditure report (Form 465) in addition to any other required reports. The Form 465 may be required as a pre-election statement in connection with an election, or a semi-annual statement.

In addition, a recipient, major donor, or independent expenditure committee must file late independent expenditure or late contribution reports (Form 496 or 497, respectively) if independent expenditures or contributions totaling $1,000 or more are made during the 16 days prior to an election held in 2005.

Contact the FPPC for specific requirements.

^{2/} The period covered by any statement begins on the day after the closing date of the last statement filed, or January 1, if no previous statement has been filed.

^{3/} File the April 30 and October 31 statements if contributions totaling $10,000 or more are made to state officeholders or committees primarily formed to support or oppose state officeholders during the period January 1 through March 31, or July 1 through September 30, respectively. NOTE: Contributions to state candidates may trigger reporting as a state committee. Contact the FPPC for information.

^{4/} Because July 31 falls on Sunday, this filing deadline is extended to August 1.

Additional Notes:

- Except for deadlines that fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or an official state holiday, there is no provision in the law for extending a filing deadline. Late statements are subject to a $10 per day late fine.
- All statements are public documents.
- State candidates and committees that contribute to state candidates are subject to contribution limits. Contact the FPPC for information.
